

Cambridge Homeless Management Information System (HMIS) PRIVACY NOTICE

- We collect personal information directly from you for reasons that are discussed in our privacy statement.
- We are required to collect some personal information from you to receive funding for the services we provide.
- Other personal information that we collect is important:
 - To continue funding to run our programs
 - To get more money for services for persons experiencing homelessness or at risk of losing their housing
 - To improve services for persons experiencing homelessness or at risk of losing their housing
 - To better understand the needs of the persons we serve

We are required to ask information for HMIS.

We only collect information that is appropriate for the services you are requesting.

The HMIS will not give your personal information to anyone without your permission.

You will not be denied services for declining to give information for input into HMIS.

You may request a copy of our privacy statement.
